

Library News 1.1

The library has free material and information to offer the community. We are a school/public library for our community so everyone is welcome! We have books, DVD's, CD's one can borrow from the library free without charge. All one would need is a library card which you can obtain from the library during library hours.

One of the popular sites that is helping mechanics all over the province is on the library database called, Auto Repair Reference Center (ARRC), which is free with a library card, you can just log in with your library number and your personal password. The following is the link that you use to access it:
