CHECKSTOP REMINDERS:

- Checkpoint participants should contact their local RCMP Commander to discuss the checkpoint, roles and responsibilities to keep the lines of communication open.
- Ensure all participants of a community checkpoint are designated and visible in appropriate attire. (eg. Highly visible, reflective safety vests)
- If during a contact with a vehicle or person(s) at a designated checkpoint, something illegal is identified, call the RCMP to deal with the situation.
- If there are concerns related to the potential non-compliance of the Saskatchewan Health Orders, please contact your local RCMP or 310- RCMP. (310-7267)
- Ensure no checkpoint participants put themselves in harms way in any situation.
- The RCMP will keep a running log of their attendance and contacts at the Indigenous Checkpoints.
- Essential services should be allowed through all checkpoints.
